

Donate Supplies and Funds to Michigan Hospitals to Fight COVID-19

April 24, 2020

Many in the community have offered to donate available Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to aid healthcare responders in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. During this difficult time, Michigan hospitals appreciate any and all assistance to help protect healthcare workers and prevent the further spread of the virus. The list below provides information on hospitals that are currently accepting donations; website links are included to help check on current policies. Please note, this is a rapidly changing situation, so you should call or check social media before traveling to a donation site for the latest status.
